PART 96.—AUTHORIZATION TO ACT FOR THE SECRETARY

Sec.

96.0 Provision for issuance.

Sec.

96.1 Authorization.

96.0 Provision for issuance. Pursuant to the Air Commerce Act authorizing and requiring the Secretary of Commerce to provide by regulation for the registration of aircraft, the rating of aircraft, parachutes, airmen, air navigation facilities, civilian flying schools and airlines, and the issuance, denial, suspension and revocation of certificates in connection therewith and such other certificates as the Secretary deems necessary in administering the functions vested in him under the Act, and for the establishment of air traffic rules, and to make such other regulations as are necessary to execute the functions vested in him by the Act, the following regulations are prescribed for representatives of the Secretary acting for him.

96.1 Authorization. The designated Assistant Secretary of Commerce, the Director of the Bureau of Air Commerce and the officers and employees of the Department of Commerce are hereby authorized to act for the Secretary in such manner as is provided for in Civil Air Regulations and the forms issued thereunder and as is otherwise necessary in carrying out the functions of the Air Commerce Act and the Civil Air Regulations prescribed pursuant to the Air Commerce Act and other law, provided, however, no such authority shall be construed to include the promulgation of regulations or any other legal duty with which the Secretary is personally charged.
